

OPENS COOKIE POLICY

OPENS Cookie Policy shall provide the explanation of different types and categories of Cookies used when accessing and using a website owned and controlled by “Novi Sad European Youth Capital – OPENS” Federation of Associations (Omladinski savez udruženja “Novi Sad omladinska prestonica Evrope-OPENS), with the headquarters in Novi Sad, Laze Telečkog 2 (hereinafter: “OPENS” or “we”).

By accessing this website, www.opens2019.rs (hereinafter: “website” or “our website”), the User shall access OPENS Cookie Policy. OPENS shall define the intentions, purposes and manners of the processing of personal data described herein, and therefore it shall be the controller of the data (in terms of EU Regulation 2016/679).

Depending on the OPENS’s website you access, our Privacy Policy shall be applied and Cookie Policy shall be amended.

The Users shall have the right to accept the use of the Cookies before accessing this page. These rules shall enable the Users to accept the use of the Cookies or to reject their use, but also to approve, i.e. reject the use of Cookies for each category of the Cookies (except Strictly Mandatory Cookies which can be just rejected).

1. Does OPENS use the cookies?

We use the cookies in order to ensure the best experience possible for the visitors of our website. By continuing to use our website, you shall accept the Cookies necessary for the functioning of the website.

2. What is a Cookie?

The Cookies are a standard function of the Internet websites which enable the storage of a small quantity of data on the visits to the website, in the form of textual files on the Users' computers. The Cookies have wide application, enabling significant improvements of functionality – they enable the efficiency by the identification of the device of the Users, for the purpose of making the use of the website easier (by memorizing selected settings of the Users). Also, the Cookies obtain the information about which parts of the website are useful, and which need improvement, but also help with the provision of the personalized content to the Users through targeted advertisements, thanks to the monitoring of the use of the website by the Users.

3. What types of Cookies are there?

FIRST-PARTY AND THIRD-PARTY COOKIES

First-Party and Third-Party Cookies enable websites to recognize whether the Users have accessed our website before, using the same browser – which in many cases influences the content which will be shown to the Users. In case the Users reject the use of all Cookies on the website, Cookies of the First-Party or Third-Party will not be used. In that manner, there will be no difference between these two types of Cookies.

When the Users visit the website for the first time, the browser of the Users who have accessed the website shall overtake the Cookies. Next time the same Users access the website from the same device, the Cookie and the information contained in it will return to the website which has overtaken it (that is the First-Party Cookie) or to other location to which it belongs (that is the Third-Party Cookie).

Third-Party Cookie providers shall deliver the Cookies in the browsers of the Users when the Users are logged in to their pages, but visit our website. OPENS has no influence on the settings of the Third-Party Cookies, thus it is necessary that the Users visit their websites and Internet pages of third party providers in order to approve the information about how they use Cookies.

PERMANENT AND SESSION COOKIES

In terms of the lifetime of Cookies, there are so-called permanent and session Cookies. Permanent Cookies are stored on the Users' computers until their lifetimes expire or until the Users delete them. Session Cookies are eliminated from the Users' computers after the Users close their browsers. When visiting our website, the Users may accept Cookies in the manner described below. Generally, the Users may select whether they accept or reject the use of the Cookies by the change of settings in their browsers.

4. HOW DO WE USE COOKIES?

·Rejecting to use Cookies

The Users have the right to accept the use of Cookies which enable the use of all functionalities of our website, without the limitation when visiting the website. If the Users reject the use of Strictly Mandatory Cookies, it might influence the functionality of the website and the Users' experience when visiting our website.

If the Users reject the use of other Cookies that does not necessarily influences their Users' experience and the functionality of the website.

If the Users reject the use of all Cookies, First-Party and Third-Party Cookies will be deactivated. Apart from that, First-Party Cookies will also be deleted, while OPENS is not able to delete any Third-Party Cookie. Therefore, it is necessary that the Users delete the Third-Party Cookies themselves, which can be done only within the settings of the browsers used by the Users (more information below).

Deactivation and/or Removal of Cookies via Users' Browsers

If they want to, the Users can change the settings of the Cookies in the Internet browser. Such settings are usually in the menu of the Internet browsers under: options, tools or preferences. For more information, it is necessary to see the item help in the menu of the Internet browser. Different browsers can use different mechanisms for disabling Cookies, thus the Users can find more information about that on the following links:

Cookie settings in Internet Explorer

Cookie settings in Firefox

Cookie settings in Chrome

Cookie settings in Safari

The same principles shall apply to the deletion of former and activation of new cookies. Therefore, it is necessary that the Users follow the adequate guidelines of the Internet browser as described above.

There are those online tools for the deletion and clearing of all Cookies which are left by the website and other Internet pages the Users have visited (e.g.).

Note: When the Users visit our website from other computer, it is necessary to repeat the change of settings of their Internet browsers and to make the decision about the Privacy Policy and the use of Cookies.

5. WHAT COOKIES DO WE USE?

Different types of Cookies which OPENS and third parties use at our website are given below (Strictly Mandatory Cookies, Performance Cookies, Functional Cookies, Targeted Cookies [cookies for social media])
